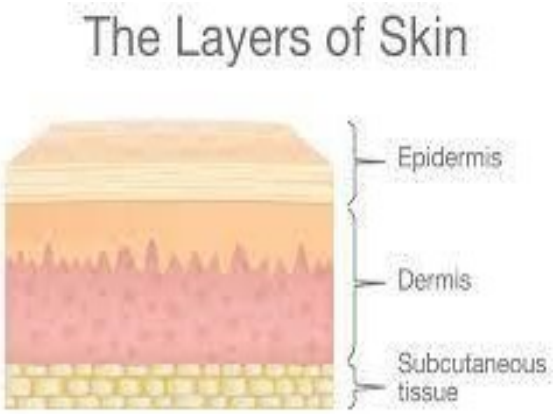
Introduction of BLOOM SKIN

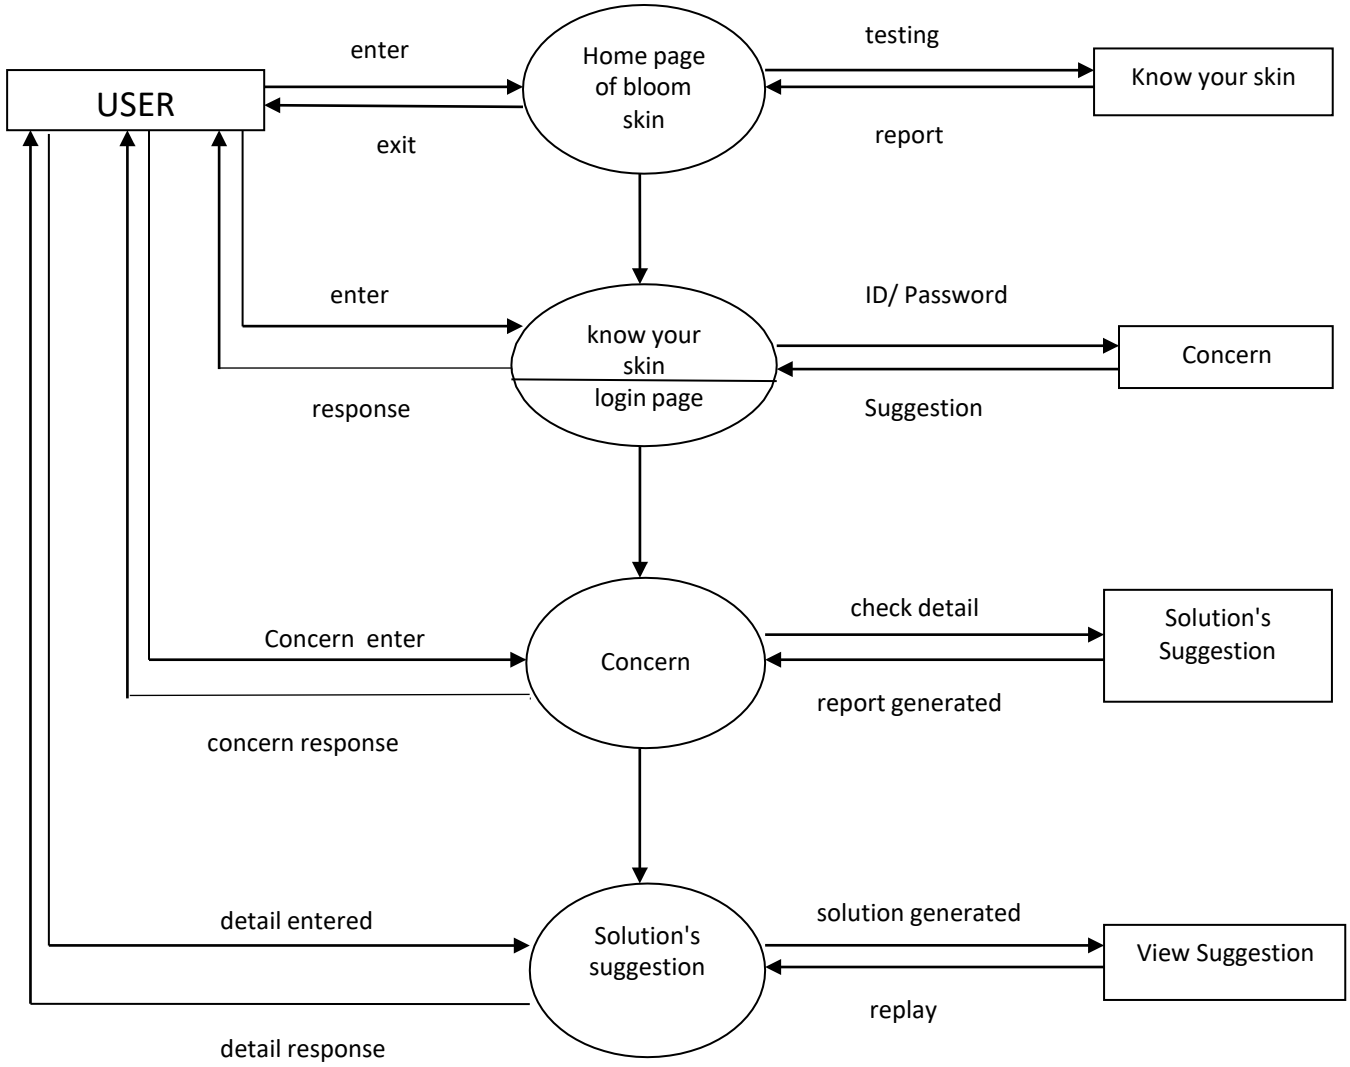
The word 'BLOOM' refers blossom sense or we can say that *the flowering state the roses are in bloom.*And the term 'SKIN' refers to the body's outer covering,which protect against heat and light,injury and infection. Skin is made up three main layers: Epidermis , Dermis, and Hypodermis.



Elderly people use natural and ayurvedic herbs to enhance their natural beauty . As like they use gram flour as a facewash, Fuller's earth as a body soap and shampoo and so many home remedies they use to enhance their beauty.

Data Flow Diagram

A Data Flow Diagram (DFD) is a way of representing a flow of data of a process or a system (usually an information system). The DFD also provides information about the outputs and inputs of each entity and the process itself. A data-flow diagram has no control flow. There are no decisions rules and no loops. Specific operations based on the data can be represented by a flowchart.



E-R Diagram

An Entity-Relationship Diagram (ERD) is a data modeling technique that is graphically illustrates an information system's entities and the relationships between those entities.

An ERD is a conceptual and representation model of data used to represent the entityframework infrastructure

Conclusion

During working of this project I have a great experience I founf so many logics and learn how to apply them. I found in this project how to divide time and manage the project. I learnt many intresting facts for developing project.It was really wonderful and valuable experience that we got from this project. I created this project and all processes are organized and managed by me.

I learned developing project module and then integrated them. It was really wonderful and learning experience. For the easy management this "BLOOM SKIN" has been formed.

PHP:

- PHP was conceived sometime in the fall of 1994 by Rasmus Lerdorf. Early non-released versions were used on his home page to keep track of who was looking at his online resume. The first version used by others was available sometime in early 1995 and was known as the Personal Home Page Tools.
- It is difficult to give any hard statistics, but it is estimated that by late 1996 PHP/FI was in use on at least 15,000 web sites around the world.
- Today (end-1999) either PHP/FI or PHP3 ships with a number of commercial products such as C2's StrongHold web server and RedHat Linux.
